MARY'S MESSAGE

Mary Pruess

President and GM, WNIT Public Television

The Roman god Janus aptly lends his name to our month of January since the god of doors and entrances was typically portrayed as having two heads, one looking behind to the past and one looking forward to the future. Similarly, the beginning of a new year is a good time for WNIT to reflect on where we've been and project where we are going.

It was just one year ago that WNIT re-designated its channels, making 34.1 our primary channel and WNIT InFocus 34.2 our secondary. Now that a year has passed and the dust has settled, this would be an opportune time to review the WNIT channel designations over a variety of venues. Viewers who receive television over the air need only select 34.1 or 34.2 on their dials to receive both our channels.

For those who receive television via Comcast cable, the following may be helpful:

Comcast carries 34.1 as its channel 10 in South Bend, Mishawaka, Goshen, Bristol, Elkhart, Plymouth, Rochester, Middlebury, Jefferson Township, Wakarusa and eastern LaPorte County, Indiana, and Edwardsburg, Niles, Buchanan, Cassopolis, Dowagiac, St. Joseph (city), Berrien Springs, Stevensville and New Buffalo, Michigan.

It carries 34.1 as channel 4 in Argos, Bourbon, Bremen, Culver, Knox, Lakeville, LaPaz, Nappanee, North Judson, North Liberty, Syracuse and Walkerton, Indiana. It carries 34.1 as channel 11 in LaGrange County, Indiana and Constantine and White Pigeon, Michigan. 34.1 is channel 26 in LaPorte (city) and western LaPorte County, Indiana. Comcast also carries WNIT InFocus 34.2 as channel 371 and it carries 34.1 in High Definition as 191.

For viewers who receive television via Dish and Direct satellite providers or AT&T U-verse, 34.1 is the only WNIT channel available, carried as channel 34. Regardless of how you receive us, WNIT is PBS for Michiana and that means we provide the best television on television.

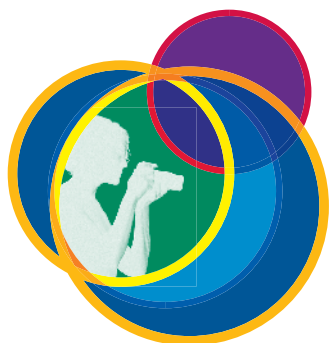

Looking forward, 2012 promises to be challenging and rewarding as we expand our community partnerships, built viewership and membership and create more award-winning programs and documentaries. For example, during 2011 we provided tours of the facility to 349 persons and meeting space for 426 persons in outside groups. If you or your organization would like to see our station, please call and arrange for a tour. We are proud of our new building and there's much to see. Later in the year, we may even have some new equipment to show off.

Membership remains at the heart of who we are. We continue to strive to make area residents into viewers and viewers into members. Building on our on-air successes in 2011—the three “South Bend” town hall style programs, OUR TOWN: WARSAW-WINONA LAKE, BRAINGAMES, THE POWER OF 100, FROM RIGHTEOUS TO WILLING: BUILDING BRIDGES IN MICHIANA – our production team is already working on several new projects, including documentaries, web videos and specials. Could they even have a new local production up their sleeve?

Prognostication is never easy, but one thing remains certain. WNIT is proud to be PBS for Michiana, in 2012 and beyond!

ON THE COVER

A DECADE OF SUCCESS: Dinner and a Book & Outdoor Elements

Both DINNER AND A BOOK and OUTDOOR ELEMENTS begin their eleventh season in January. DINNER AND A BOOK features Gail Martin and a co-host as they discuss a popular book and prepare a meal that complements the theme, country or characters. Some of the books for the new season include The Apprentice; Blood, Bones and Butter; Wine and War and Sarah's Key. Co-hosts include: Joe DiMaggio, Marshall King, Tuck Langland and Alice Martin, respectively. As Gail notes, "Working with so many talented guests these past 11 years has been a joy for me. The guests are articulate, adventuresome and very good cooks. There are many talented people in the Michiana region, and I'm glad to have found so many of them!"

OUTDOOR ELEMENTS is WNIT's celebration of our area's great outdoors and is presented in partnership with the St. Joseph County Parks Department. This season, Evie Kirkwood brings us such episodes as "Fall Festival," "Let's Hear It for Trees!" "Good for the Earth," and "Nature's Bounty." As Evie said recently, "From falconry to electronics recycling, I am always amazed at the wonderful things people in our communities are eager to share on our show. I hope the program inspires families to get outside and try some of the activities and projects we feature each week ... Or just take a hike to experience nature first-hand!"

His views crystallize further when he travels to Rome and finds the capital of Catholicism swamped in corruption. Nature: Birds of the Gods

NOVA: Deadliest Earthquakes

NATURE

WEDNESDAYS, 8PM

“BIRDS OF THE GODS” – JANUARY 4

Living in the depths of the New Guinean rainforest are birds of unimaginable color and beauty. Europeans believed they must be from heaven and called them birds of paradise. The people of New Guinea say the birds possess supernatural powers and magic. David Attenborough introduces a young team of New Guinean scientists on a grueling expedition to find and film these birds of paradise — the holy grail of wildlife filmmakers.

“KANGAROO MOB” – JANUARY 11

Meet the mob of street smart kangaroos moving into Australia’s capital city and the ecologists who follow their every move. Over the course of one drought-stricken year, follow mob leader, Black Spot, and kangaroo mother, Madge, with her two young joeys — mischievous Sonny and tiny pouch-bound Alice. See what happens when human development encroaches on wildlife habitat and two very different species are forced to co-exist.

Underwritten by Martin’s Super Markets and Zimmer.

NOVA

WEDNESDAYS

“DEADLIEST VOLCANOES”

– JANUARY 4, 9PM

Millions of people around the world live in the shadow of active volcanoes. Under constant threat of massive volcanic eruptions, their homes and their lives are daily at risk from these sleeping giants. From Japan’s Mount Fuji to the “Sleeping Giant” submerged beneath Naples to the Yellowstone “supervolcano” in the United States, scientists attempt to discover how likely these volcanoes are to erupt, when eruptions might happen and how deadly they could prove to be.

“DEADLIEST EARTHQUAKES”

– JANUARY 4, 10PM

In 2010, epic earthquakes all over the planet delivered one of the worst annual death tolls ever recorded. The deadliest strike was in Haiti, where a quake just southwest of the capital, Port-au-Prince, killed more than 200,000. A NOVA camera crew follows a team of U.S. geologists as they first enter Haiti in the immediate aftermath of the tragedy. Barely a month after the Haiti quake, Chile was struck by a quake 100 times more powerful, unleashing a tsunami that put the entire Pacific coast on high alert.

Caught in the middle of a centuries-old Irish-English conflict playing out on the plains of the Southwest, the Kid captured national attention with his reckless violence. AMERICAN MASTERS
MONDAY, JANUARY 23, 10PM

“PHIL OCHS: THERE BUT FOR FORTUNE”

One of the most politically active singer-songwriters to emerge in the 1960s, Phil Ochs was inspired by Woody Guthrie and Pete Seeger, but also by Elvis Presley and John Wayne. He was a journalism student in college, which, perhaps, informed the extent of his protest lyrics — always witty, topical and insightful, always slightly haunting.

WYATT EARP:
AMERICAN EXPERIENCE
TUESDAY, JANUARY 24, 8PM

As a young man, Wyatt Earp was a caricature of the Western lawman, spending his days drinking in saloons, gambling, visiting brothels and gaining notoriety as the legendary gunman in the shootout at the OK Corral in Tombstone, Arizona. Shortly after his death in 1929, distressed Americans down on their luck transformed Wyatt Earp into a folk hero.

GERONIMO:
AMERICAN EXPERIENCE
TUESDAY, JANUARY 24, 9PM

After his tribe was relocated to an Arizona reservation in 1872, Geronimo became a focus of the fury of terrified white settlers and of the growing tensions that divided Apaches struggling to survive. To angry whites, Geronimo became the archfiend, perpetrator of unspeakable savage cruelties. To his supporters, he remained the embodiment of proud resistance, the upholder of the old Chiricahua ways. They became the last Native-American fighting force to capitulate formally to the government of the United States.

SECRETS OF THE DEAD “SINKING ATLANTIS”

MONDAY, JANUARY 30, 10PM

A champion in a man’s sport, Oakley forever changed ideas about the abilities of women, yet opposed female suffrage.

JESSE JAMES:
AMERICAN EXPERIENCE
TUESDAY, JANUARY 31, 9PM

Jesse James, so the legend goes, was a western outlaw, though, in fact, he never went west; America’s own Robin Hood, though he robbed from the poor as well as the rich; a gunfighter, though his victims were almost always unarmed. Less heroic than brutal, James was a member of a vicious band of Missouri guerrillas during the Civil War.

In 1961, segregation seemed to have an overwhelming grip on American society until an integrated band of college students decided to risk everything and buy a ticket on a Greyhound bus bound for the Deep South. They called themselves the Freedom Riders, and they managed to bring the president and the entire American public face-to-face with the challenge of correcting civil-rights inequities that plagued the nation.

SLAVERY BY ANOTHER NAME

Monday, February 13, 9pm

This documentary explores the little-known story of the post-Emancipation era and the labor practices and laws that effectively created a new form of slavery in the South that persisted well into the 20th century. Blackmon examines the concept of "neoslavery," which sentenced African-Americans to forced labor for violating an array of laws that criminalized their everyday behavior.

These stand-out citizens from South Bend have had great successes in their lives and many of them overcame the same situations as the students they mentor.

DELIVERING ON THE PROMISE

Wine, Dinner and Sculpture Tour

Gail Martin, host of WNIT's DINNER AND A BOOK, and sculptor Tuck Langland led a wine, sculpture and dinner tour in southwestern Michigan on October 23. Guests sampled wines and enjoyed appetizers en route to Baroda, Michigan, for a wine tasting and tour at Lemon Creek Winery.

The bus then traveled to Dowagiac for a tour of public sculptures led by Langland, a national award-winning sculptor. After the tour, guests walked to the Woodfire Grill in downtown Dowagiac where they enjoyed a choice of one of several three-course dinners with wine.

As Gail says, "Good friends, good food and good trips make for a very good life."

Alick's Claims BrainGames Crown

BrainGames, WNIT's fast-paced series focusing on the human brain's functioning at various life stages, concluded in November as Alick's Home Medical bested 32 Pearls Family Dentistry and Jones Obenchain, LLP to win the championship round. The four-part series was co-hosted by Debra Raybold, director of Memorial BrainWorks, and Mark Durocher.

PRODUCTION NEWS

Meet the Team Behind the Productions

BRENDA BOWYER

Senior Producer, 15 years

As senior producer for WNIT's productions, we rely on Brenda for her organizational skills as well as her abilities to tell great Michiana stories. Aside from that, Brenda is the person who keeps the staff members, crew members, as well as freelancer and interns, informed and on the same page. She also produces three of our five weekly local shows, ECONOMIC OUTLOOK, POLITICALLY SPEAKING and ASK AN EXPERT.

In addition, Brenda helps produce many of our one-time specials and short series such as Memorial's "BrainGames," "Michiana: Thriving or Dying?" "Michiana's Economic Future" and many more. She is a consummate professional with a keen eye, golden ears and unbounded energy. She is also instrumental in strengthening our bonds and securing funds with organizations across Michiana.

KELSY ZUMBRUN

Producer, 13 years

Kelsy's main area of responsibilities are co-producing OUTDOOR ELEMENTS along with Evie Kirkwood and directing most of our local shows. On OUTDOOR ELEMENTS, he has made a difference in the look and pace of the shows. Kelsy created the beautiful opening sequences on the program and has also expanded the segments on the show to include more interaction between viewers and the program. Additionally, Kelsy has produced the Spectrum Award recipient "Holocaust Cantata" and is the producer of "Music from the Acorn," which WNIT is developing for state and possibly national distribution.

Kelsy was also the videographer for FARM FRESH TO YOU, another recipient of the Indiana Broadcasters Spectrum Award. In addition, Kelsy is responsible for scheduling WNIT's master control to make sure that we are always on the air.

DAN McDIARMID

Production Technician, 10 years

If there is a staff person who can be identified by determination and tenacity, it is Dan McDiarmid. Dan is our "go to" editor and is also a valued master control operator. But it is in his editing skills that Dan shines.

The greatest respect a producer can give to an editor is, "Please take these hours of tapes and make something of it." And when the editor comes back with a polished, finished product, he is the producer's best friend. Needless to say, Dan has many "best friends" among the production staff.

He has brought excellent production aesthetics to our local shows such as DINNER AND A BOOK and local documentaries such as BUILDING AN AMERICAN LEGEND, FARM FRESH TO YOU and THE POWER OF 100. FARM FRESH TO YOU was a recipient of the Indiana Broadcasters Spectrum Award. Dan's work is consistently praised for quality and creativity.

MICHAEL SHELTON

Web Content

One of our most recent hires, Michael Shelton is our web content associate. Although you don't see Michael's work on the air, his role is receiving greater visibility as our web pages are becoming highly visited. Michael brings excellent knowledge of web content, especially social media utilization and interactivity with our viewers.
