A MESSAGE FROM GREG GICZI President and GM, WNIT Public Television

Dear Viewer-Members:

Welcome to the November – December edition of WNIT's Planner viewing guide. True to the season, we have a bountiful harvest of great shows.

I want to start by encouraging your viewership and support of EducationCounts_Michiana, a new weekly program series WNIT launches on Wednesday, November 2 at 7pm. More than anything, WNIT stands for education. From early childhood to retirement, WNIT is about life-long learning. Now, we are pleased to bring you this new program which will highlight positive examples of learning across our region, and explore and discuss issues facing the education and workforce sectors in Indiana and Michigan. The program will seek to bring understanding and collaboration to find relevant solutions to our educational challenges.

As a country, we have some big decisions to make. Please vote! PBS NewsHour will provide election coverage as votes are counted on election night, beginning at 8pm. On Tuesday, November 15 and 22 at 8pm, PBS Michiana will feature Black America Since MLK: And Still I Rise. This is a documentary for all Americans.

For a little bit of Northern Indiana history, you will enjoy Riding the Rails of History: The Story of the South Shore Line. You can catch this documentary on November 16 at 8pm.

I think we all know that each one of our PBS Kids programs is designed to educate our youngest citizens and not sell products to them. Our newest entry, Splash and Bubbles, will premiere on November 23 and features a unique marine science curriculum. You might like to watch too!

Our next program in WNIT's Legends of Michiana series will premiere in late December. You will enjoy the interesting history of the South Bend Symphony Orchestra's retired music director, Maestro Tsung Yeh. Our first broadcast will be on December 22.

In a holiday mood? Throughout the schedules on our two WNIT channels, 34.1 and 34.2, you will find a variety of holiday specials.

I'm overwhelmed by all WNIT has to offer in the next two months. Enjoy it! And if you are in that extra special giving mood, please consider an end-of-year donation to support your Michiana PBS station, WNIT. We gladly accept gifts of cash or property – cars, stocks/bonds, real estate. Thank you for a year of tremendous support. You make all these great programs happen at WNIT!

Happy holidays!

Greg Giczi
President & General Manager

At this special time of year, all of us at WNIT wish you and your family a festive holiday season and a joyous new year. We look forward to serving you in 2017 and remain dedicated to bringing you the best that public television has to offer.

2016 Winter Membership Campaign

WNIT's Winter Membership Campaign starts on Thursday, November 24 and runs through Thursday, December 8. Our on-air Membership Campaigns remain the most effective way of encouraging viewers to join the WNIT family of supporters. While these drives represent less than two percent of our annual broadcast hours, they do provide WNIT with the majority of revenue required to purchase and produce the regular and local programming enjoyed by everyone throughout northern Indiana and southwestern Michigan.

So get ready to experience an interesting and informative line-up of special programs for the entire family. And be sure to tell your family and friends why you think supporting WNIT is important.

It's viewers like you who make a real difference to everyone in our community. Thank you for supporting WNIT!

PRODUCTION NEWS

WNIT to Launch Weekly Local Show on Education

Learning in the 21st century looks very different in our schools, communities and workplaces, as adjustments are being adapted to this world where education is continuous and knowledge is more accessible than ever. Despite this expansion of learning, there remain significant gaps in access to opportunities, particularly across socio-economic and racial/ethnic lines. Schools continue to struggle to educate all children equally, and an American public education is too often the subject of fierce critique. Additionally, our nation is alarmed by considerable education-workforce gaps that jeopardize our economic future.

WNIT's EducationCounts_Michiana has a big role to play. This weekly primetime series and internet-based resource will establish that learning from birth to retirement will require the collaboration of the entire community – families, parents, students, faculty, business, philanthropy and government. Everyone will need to share the same goal to educate all of our Michiana citizens at each life stage.

EducationCounts_Michiana will highlight positive examples of learning across formal and informal spaces in our region, and explore and discuss issues facing the education and industry sectors in Indiana and Michigan. The program will present factual information, identify problems and explain their complexity to help foster understanding and collaboration to find solutions.

Topics will spread across the lifespan from early childhood, K-12, college, career and retirement. A high-level Advisory Council and Steering Committee comprising of educators, business, community and government leadership will advise WNIT on the most relevant and important topics long-term, as well as key questions to consider and address within each topic.

EducationCounts_Michiana on television and on the internet will be a forum and resource on complex problems affecting our children and schools. The program will go beneath the surface to define issues, celebrate what is good, look at the challenges, identify solutions and group together partners from all sectors of the community to address the challenges and questions: Where are we going? How do we do it? What is needed? What can people do? When Michiana comes together to advance education, our entire region wins!

WNIT is proud to present its newest local show, EducationCounts_Michiana on Thursdays, beginning November 2 at 7pm, with additional airings on Sundays at 1:30pm on 34.1 and Fridays at 4pm on 34.2.

Congratulations!

Congratulation to these WNIT supporters and friends who were selected as torch bearers for the Indiana Bicentennial Torch Relay.

Legends of Michiana: Tsung Yeh – The Maestro’s Touch

The Legends of Michiana documentary series focuses on people and organizations that have been influential to the growth and development of the Michiana area. In Legends of Michiana: Tsung Yeh – The Maestro’s Touch, viewers will see the face of the South Bend Symphony Orchestra as they’ve never seen it before. A daring music director, Tsung Yeh’s passion for the art form is shared with the musicians in a way that engages and excites the community. From his youth in Shanghai, China and education and life in the United States, to his considerable contributions to the Singapore Chinese Orchestra and his decision to return home, we will go on a ride full of the joy and charm that typifies Tsung Yeh. For nearly 30 years, Tsung Yeh has impacted our community with music, mentorship and brilliance. Follow along on his journey to excellence.

WNIT is thrilled to present the biographical feature of the composer who has helped build the South Bend Symphony into one of the finest regional orchestras in the central United States on Thursday, December 22 at 8pm and Sunday, December 26 at 6pm on 34.1.

Our Town: Plymouth

Plymouth, Indiana is the county seat of Marshall County. It is a traditional Midwestern town with a gorgeous courthouse and tree-lined streets. WNIT returns with its popular Our Town series in a look at Plymouth. Our Town: Plymouth will showcase the special aspects of this city as told through people who are from the community. A barn quilt tour, farmers market and the speedway are just a few significant pieces of small-town Plymouth, but a closer look also reveals the historic and charming side of this town.

There are many documentaries of this genre that are done by chamber offices and visitors bureaus from the local regions that focus on the beauty of their area; however, what sets the Our Town series apart from these documentaries is that these stories are videotaped and told through the eyes of the people who live and work in the towns. Our Town: Plymouth is a tapestry of stories that spotlight the town and collectively present what makes this community unique.

WNIT is proud to present its newest installment of the Our Town series, Our Town: Plymouth on December 1 at 8pm & 9:30pm on 34.1.

SUPPORTER SPOTLIGHT

JOANN & JOSEPH BLAZEK

JoAnn and Joseph Blazek have been WNIT supporters for more than 30 years. “When we started giving, there were wonderful shows for our children, who were younger. They loved Sesame Street and Mr. Rogers’ Neighborhood,” JoAnn says. “They were just good quality shows for the kids, and I thought that was wonderful. I felt that it was really important that we had a public television station in our community.” The family continued to give to the station consistently for three decades as members, as supporters of pledge drives and as volunteers on the phones for live pledge nights. In 2014, they became Directors’ Circle members.

And now that the children are adults, they find themselves drawn to PBS for even more than the kids’ programming. “PBS does a fabulous job on the specials and documentaries. I know that when I see a special on WNIT, it will be better than anything I can find on other stations,” JoAnn says. Both were big fans of Downton Abbey, and Joe likes to watch Rick Steves. JoAnn has recently started watching Poldark, and loves all the Ken Burns documentaries, particularly his film on the National Parks. Joe and JoAnn split their time between Cassopolis and Florida. They enjoy traveling and spending time with their two children and three grandchildren.

WNIT thanks the Blazeks for their years of dedication and support of local programming and public media.

DIRECTORS’ CIRCLE

The WNIT Directors’ Circle represents a very dedicated and select group of individuals who, by their commitment, contribute to the total annual support which is the foundation of WNIT’s operating budget. These essential annual contributions make possible the great programs that everyone in Michiana enjoys.
