A Message from Greg Giczi

President and GM, PBS Michiana - WNIT

Hello My Favorite People!

Yes, you! All of you who are such avid viewers and supporters of PBS Michiana-WNIT! Thank you.

We are certainly getting into the busiest time of the year. All of our big fall and winter holidays are coming up. We have gift buying season. We'll be raking a lot of leaves and shoveling some snow. We have it all in the next two months! PBS Michiana-WNIT will be loading it on as well with a rich assortment of programming from PBS complemented by our own documentaries and regional holiday programs.

To start on Wednesday, November 2nd, at 7pm, we're going to celebrate a birthday, the 100th birthday of the Morris Performing Arts Center, originally built as the Palace vaudeville theatre. There's a lot of history to tell!

Let's get out and vote on Tuesday, November 8th, then see the national results come in beginning at 8pm with the balanced reporting style of PBS Newshour.

You know how they never show much of half-time performances during football games, we've got the best of Indiana high school marching bands as they compete to be the best in the state, Thanksgiving Day at 3:30pm. On Wednesday, November 30th at 7pm, PBS Michiana-WNIT encores Then, Now and Always - The St. Joseph River Story. If you are out and about, the South Bend Symphony will perform original music from the program at their concert on Saturday, November 12th.

We know you enjoy them, so we have scheduled a number of holiday music programs scattered throughout December but heavily featured on Christmas Eve and Christmas. They will be playing on both channels 34.1 and 34.2. We will have programs from Purdue, Indiana University Bloomington, Indiana University South Bend, Goshen College, Andrews University, University of Notre Dame, Belmont College, the Tabernacle Choir, U.S. Air Force, and even the Chardon Polka Band. You will definitely need to flip the pages of this PBS Michiana-WNIT Planner magazine for all the days and times. PBS Kids Christmas programming will start December 2nd.

There's much more than holiday music in December. The University of Notre Dame College of Science Christmas Lecture is Wednesday, December 21st at 10pm. American Masters presents "Groucho & Cavett" on Tuesday, December 27th, at 8pm. Our latest Women in Leadership documentary is Wednesday, December 28th at 7:30pm. This installment features women in agriculture. And the two everyone seems to be anticipating, the All Creatures Great and Small (8pm) and Call the Midwife (9 pm) Christmas specials will be on Sunday, December 25th.

Thank you, everyone, for giving us a successful year. We couldn't have done it without your viewership and support! Happy holidays!!

Best wishes,

On the Cover

A Century at the Morris

For a century, South Bend's Morris Performing Arts Center has transformed audiences through the magic of vaudeville, movies, theater, symphonies, ballet and famous bands and movie stars from across the country. The adjoining Palais Royale dance hall has been the setting for proms and weddings, leaving indelible memories on the hearts of the community. All the while, the building itself has gone through its own transformations being saved from the wrecking ball in 1959 by Mrs. Ella Morris, the namesake of today's theater. PBS Michiana - WNIT will showcase the 100th anniversary of this artistic gem highlighting how the theater has served its community, and how the community has embraced the Morris.

Premieres Wednesday, November 2 at 7pm

It will re-air on Friday, November 4 at 10:30pm and Sunday, November 6 at 4pm

AWARD-WINNING EXCELLENCE

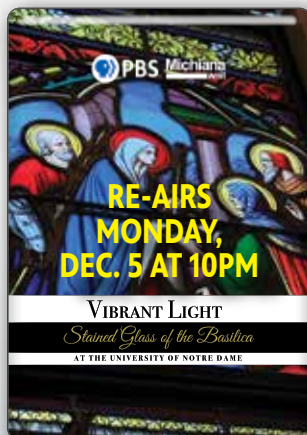

Then, Now and Always...The Saint Joseph River Story Patricia Wisniewski and Tom Desch, Producers

54th Annual Public Media Awards

★ Winner, Cultural Feature ★

Presented by the National Educational Telecommunications Association (NETA)

This documentary tells the story of the St. Joseph River from its head waters in Hillsdale County, MI, to Lake Michigan. This project explores its natural history, human history, current status and challenges. The documentary was supported by educational materials, original music, exhibits, and community outreach. In addition, many towns along the St. Joe River held celebrations to coincide with this documentary. The South Bend Symphony Orchestra will be performing the original score from the documentary, composed by Dr. Marvin Curtis and Bryan Edington, on November 12, 2022 in their program DEBUSSY'S LA MER.

Vibrant Light: Stained Glass of the Basilica at the University of Notre Dame Brenda Bowyer, Producer

54th Annual Public Media Awards

★ Winner, Visual Arts ★

Presented by the National Educational Telecommunications Association (NETA)

Father Edward Sorin came to South Bend in the winter of 1842 to start a college and orphanage. He quickly started building what would become the University of Notre Dame. By 1870, there was a need for another, larger church and so began construction for what is known today at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart. Stained glass was ordered from the Carmel Du Mans Glassworks, a connection dear to Fr. Sorin in Le Mans, France. He ordered 450 square meters of stained glass which was crafted over 11 years. This documentary travels to France to discover the birthplace of the glass and explores what was happening contemporarily in the United States in architectural style and design.

A Legacy Of Memories: Silver Beach Amusement Park Paul Wasowski, Producer

★ State History Award ★

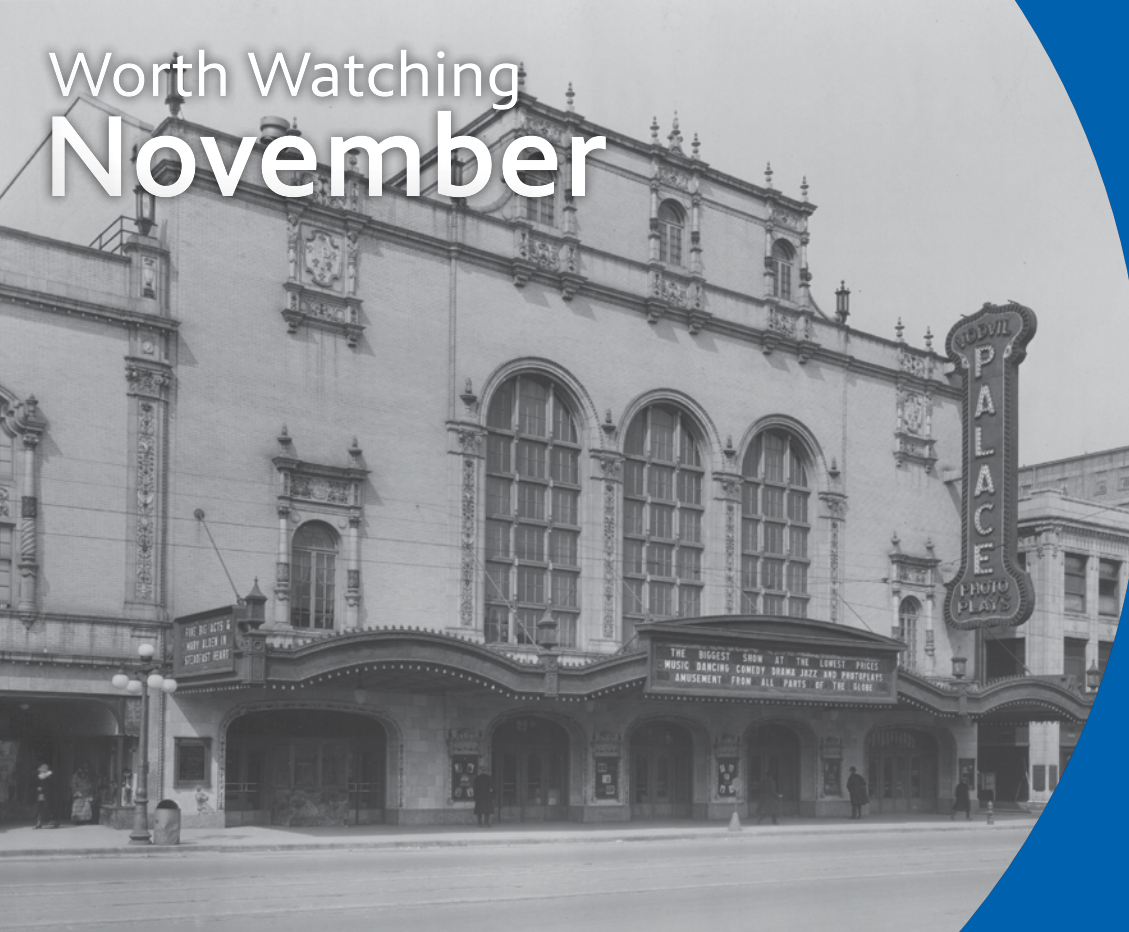

Presented by the Historical Society of Michigan

Silver Beach opened as a resort in 1891 when local businessmen Logan Drake and Louis D. Wallace built vacation cottages as Silver Beach Amusement and Realty Company along Lake Michigan. There are many stories to tell – including the midway roller coaster, Shadowland Ballroom, the carousel, Ferris wheel, waterslide, penny arcade, visits by Hollywood movie stars, performances by Big Band leaders, touring boats, vacationing tourists, the families who worked there, the guests who enjoyed the park and so much more.

CONGRATULATIONS!

ANTIGONICK

BY SOPHOKLES

IN A NEW TRANSLATION BY ANNE CARSON

PATRICK KING, DIRECTOR

Thursday - Saturday
Nov. 17 - 19, 7 p.m.
Sunday, Nov. 20, 3 p.m.

"Antigonick" adapts one of the earliest tragedies in theatre in Anne Carson's playful, bittersweet, and profoundly poetic translation. When King Kreon forbids the burial of Antigone's brother, announcing a sentence of death on anybody who touches his body, her decision to defy his ruling unravels families and the ruling order. This adaptation breaks the play open, breaks down the fourth wall, and revels in its messiness and complications.

ANTIGONICK is presented by special arrangement with United Talent Agency

End of Year Tax Planning & Donations

Each and every day you turn to WNIT for news and information you trust. With help from caring viewers like you, WNIT can maintain our role as the most trustworthy source for news, the go-to station for the arts and entertainment, and the only source of curriculum-based educational children's programming. It is our mission and we stay true to that mission at all times.

As we close out 2022, we ask for your help to maintain that mission by making an additional investment in the future of WNIT. As a community-owned station, WNIT is an expression of your interests, your curiosity, and your support. Visit wnit.org/give to make your tax-deductible cash contribution before December 31st. You can also make gifts of vehicles or appreciated stock. Tax receipts for all donations in 2022 will be mailed in January 2023.

Qualified individuals can also make a charitable gift from an IRA through December 31st. This provision allows taxpayers who are age 70 ½ or older to give up to $100,000 from their IRA to qualifying charities without having to pay income tax on the withdrawn amount. Individuals interested in this type of contribution should consult their tax or financial advisors for more information.

At this special time of year, all of us at WNIT wish you and your family a safe and joyous holiday season and a very happy new year. We look forward to serving you in 2023 and remain dedicated to bringing you the best that public television has to offer now and into the future.

Did you know we accept land, homes, vacation cottages, rental property, commercial real estate, and estates?

Now Accepting Property Donations

WNIT partners with CARS (Charitable Adult Rides & Services) to process donations in the form of real estate assets. Properties in any location, condition, and format are eligible for donation to WNIT. Back taxes, mortgage balances, and deferred maintenance do not prohibit your ability to donate. Our program covers all loans, liens, commissions, and closing costs so long as there is equity in the property.

If you have a land, residential, or commercial real estate asset that is unused or costing you money, consider giving back to the station you love by donating it to WNIT. As a result, you may also be eligible for a significant tax deduction!

Go to wnit.org/realestate to learn more.
