A MESSAGE FROM GREG GICZI President and GM, WNIT Public Television

Dear WNIT Enthusiast:

Happy New Year!

Thank you for all your support during 2016! Many of you have converted to WNIT's sustainer program, in which your annual donation is broken down to smaller monthly payments. While you might think that we would like the larger payment at one time, the monthly payments actually work out better for us because they smooth out our cash flow. And, most often, a gift such as an annual $100 gets converted to $10 a month which is an overall boost. We appreciate all of you who do that!

There's a lot to celebrate on WNIT in the coming two months! As you thumb through your new WNIT Planner magazine, I think you will find several programs you will want to specifically earmark for viewing. Let me point out a few that caught my attention ...

Get to know our new President Trump a little better through a pair of in-depth Frontline specials on January 3 and 24. For Sherlock fans, some new episodes have been produced with the first one airing on January 1. We know you will miss new episodes of Downton Abbey, but you may find a new favorite with Victoria, which will become part of Masterpiece on Sunday, January 15. And new episodes of Mercy Street premiere the following Sunday, January 22.

Last August, Antiques Roadshow visited Indianapolis. Enough footage was filmed to create two episodes. We will present those on back-to-back weeks starting Monday, January 30. We'll repeat them a few times during the week because of the regional interest.

On the local front, host Gail Martin returns for a fresh season of Dinner & A Book, Saturday, January 7 at 10:30am, and repeated Monday, January 9 at 7pm.

Have you watched our new EducationCounts_Michiana program? It's our brand new local weekly program launched at the beginning of November. We cover the full spectrum of education from early childhood into retirement years. If you're a believer in the importance of lifelong learning, this program should be one of your regular stops on the dial.

None of these great programs happen by magic. They happen because of your generous and regular support. The more people we have to support WNIT, the more we can do. Please encourage a friend who is a regular viewer to also become a regular supporter.

Best wishes to you!

Greg Giczi
President & General Manager

ON THE COVER

VICTORIA

The eight-hour drama follows Victoria (Jenna Coleman) from the time she becomes Queen in 1837 at the age of 18 through her relationship with Lord Melbourne (Rufus Sewell), her first prime minister and intimate friend, and her courtship and marriage to Prince Albert (Tom Hughes). Famous for her candor and spirit, she was the first woman who seemed to have it all: a passionate marriage, nine children and the job of being queen of the world's most important nation. Her often tumultuous reign lasted for 63 years.

Victoria on Masterpiece premieres on Sunday, January 15 and airs Sundays at 9pm and re-airs on Saturdays at 11pm on WNIT Public Television Ch. 34.1.

PRODUCTION NEWS

Dinner & A Book Returns for 16th Season!

The 16th season of Dinner & A Book returns on Saturday, January 7 at 10:30 am. Host Gail Martin will introduce some new faces to the show, including Joe DiMaggio, who will add an extended content segment to the show which will be tied back to the theme of each episode. Joe will introduce restaurants around the area that feature similar dishes to what Gail and each week's guest will be cooking in the studio kitchen.

The new season will include twenty books with authors ranging from Bill Bryson and Colson Whitehead to Darra Goldstein and John Kennedy Toole. Travel along with Gail and her guests as they explore New Orleans, the Underground Railroad, Great Britain and many more places throughout the season.

New Series Begin and Old Favorites Return!

Sunday night remains PBS' most-watched night, and Sundays in January feature the premieres of four new and returning series. The long-awaited Sherlock on MASTERPIECE MYSTERY! will premiere on January 1. Starting January 15, Victoria on MASTERPIECE stars Jenna Coleman as the titular queen. The seven-part series follows her ascension to the throne in 1837 at 18, through her relationship with her first prime minister and intimate friend Lord Melbourne, as well as her courtship with and marriage to Prince Albert.

On January 22, Mercy Street Season 2 premieres, pushing the drama beyond the hospital walls and picking up where Season 1 ended. The show chronicles the chaos in Alexandria, Virginia; the complicated lives of Dr. Foster, Nurse Mary Phinney and the Mansion House staff; the increasingly precarious position of the Green family; and the changing world of the burgeoning black population. Joining the Sunday lineup on January 22 is a new three-part series, Secrets of the Six Wives, which follows popular English historian Lucy Worsley as she travels back to the Tudor court to witness some of the most dramatic moments in the lives of notorious King Henry VIII's numerous spouses.

"I want young people to know that the world is a much bigger place than the spot they are occupying at this time."

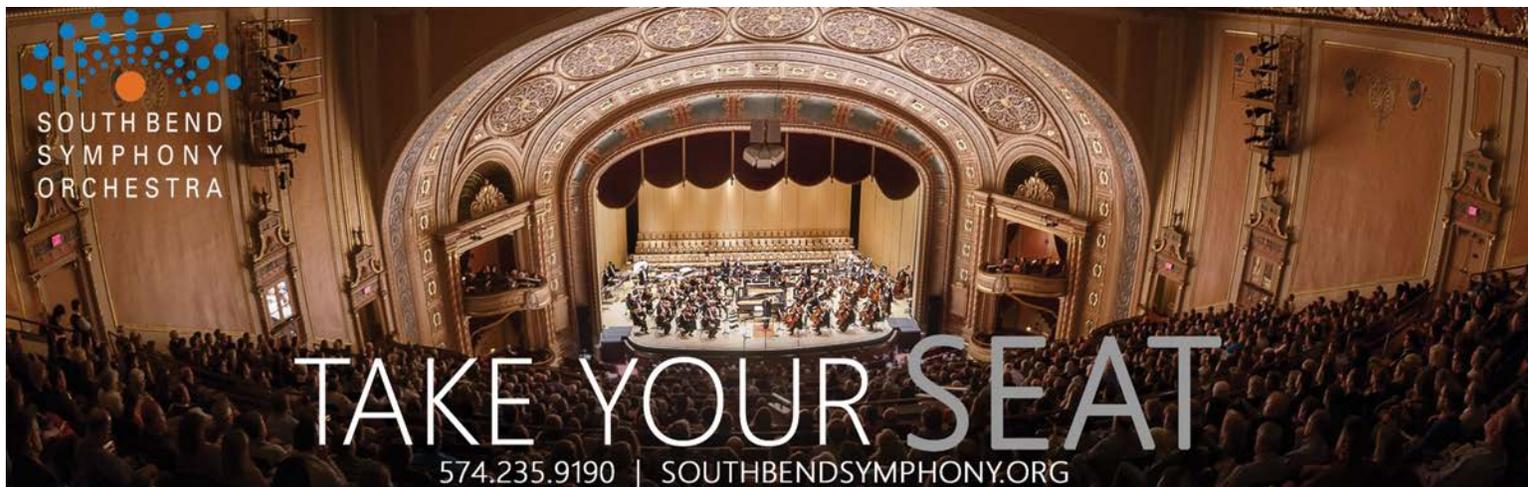

Pauline believes PBS programs keep her connected to what's happening in her community and the world and she wants to ensure they remain available for current and future generations.

That's why she has decided to leave her PBS station a gift in her will.

SUPPORTER SPOTLIGHT

PERRY STOW & ANDREA MATHER-STOW

Perry Stow and Andrea Mather-Stow have been Directors' Circle members for more than 15 years. They began giving to WNIT in 1988 as members and pledge drive volunteers, and in 2001, they joined the Directors' Circle.

"I've always been a believer in public media. I think part of it is how I was raised. I grew up down the street from my grandparents, who always had the MacNeil/Lehrer Report on; it was just part of the culture. I also love science programs and, as a musician, I love the classical music programs," Andrea says. Perry likes NOVA, Ken Burns' documentaries, Charlie Rose, and PBS NewsHour. "I want my news delivered as news, not spin. PBS is where that happens. It's unvarnished," he explains.

Andrea is a classically trained musician and has been with the South Bend Symphony Orchestra as Associate Principal oboe/solo English horn player since 1982. Perry is retired from 25 years in automotive manufacturing. They now work together as representatives of Juice Plus+, a concentrated fruit and veggie supplement — helping to provide whole food based nutrition to those in need.

They keep busy in the community as well with volunteer efforts. This commitment to their community helps guide their philanthropic efforts. "At a certain point, we shifted the type of giving we did to be more local," Andrea says.

WNIT thanks Andrea and Perry for their support of public media and for their contributions to the station and beyond.

DIRECTORS' CIRCLE

The WNIT Directors' Circle represents a very dedicated and select group of individuals who, by their commitment, contribute to the total annual support which is the foundation of WNIT's operating budget. These essential annual contributions make possible the great programs that everyone in Michiana enjoys.
