A Message from Greg Giczi

President and GM, WNIT Public Television

Hi Everyone,

I hear so many moans and groans about life without football. These are generally from men. What could be worse? I think a life without the enrichment of PBS programming! (I like football, too) Fortunately, thanks to viewers like you, WNIT remains financially stable during this virus crisis. Thank you!

Every month I have this problem. Too much to share and not enough space! Here goes...

Overall, we are gearing up for the elections. We're not taking sides, but we will be presenting debates and documentaries to give you information for good decision making. The first presidential debate is September 29th and more follow in October. American Experience presents "The Vote" starting Tuesday, September 8th. Black America Since MLK: And Still I Rise will be carried September 21 and 28 at 8pm.

September 13th at 9pm a new Masterpiece drama "Van Der Valk" is introduced. Then The Last Tango in Halifax returns with four new episodes on Sunday, September 20th at 8pm.

Since the in-person event had to be cancelled, WNIT will broadcast the 2020 Elkhart County Hall of Fame Awards on Thursday, September 24th at 9pm.

There will be a lot more in the way of political coverage in October, but that month is also Hispanic Heritage Month. WNIT will have the Hispanic Heritage Awards 2020 on Tuesday, October 6th at 8pm followed by the Latino Vote: Dispatches from the Battleground at 9pm.

Our re-broadcast of the entire Poldark series ends on Thursday, October 8th. The following week, we will introduce the Frankie Drake Mysteries at 8pm. We think "Frankie" will be a good companion program to fresh episodes of our Father Brown Mysteries.

For you Arts lovers, Great Performances and American Masters will continue the next two months. Included in that series is the 50 year celebration of Sesame Street, A Swingin' Sesame Street Celebration on Friday, October 30th at 9pm.

Awww, who cares if we don't get to see Michigan vs. Ohio State play this year? You've got WNIT with two great months of programming coming up. Keep your WNIT Planner magazine on the coffee table! Happy Labor Day and Happy Halloween! Thank you so much for watching and supporting WNIT, PBS Michiana.

Best wishes,

The Choice 2020: Trump vs. Biden

In the midst of a historic pandemic, economic hardship, and a reckoning with racism, this November Americans will decide who will lead the nation for the next four years: President Donald Trump or former Vice President Joe Biden.

And before the votes are cast, as it has for every election since 1988, FRONTLINE will present The Choice — its critically acclaimed election year special offering interwoven investigative biographies of both major-party candidates.

The Choice 2020: Trump vs. Biden, a two-hour documentary telling the story of a deeply divided nation through the lives of the two men who want to lead it, will premiere Tuesday, September 22 at 9/8c on WNIT Public Television

From veteran chronicler of U.S. politics Michael Kirk, who with his team has made four prior installments of The Choice and nearly 20 documentaries about the Trump and Obama eras, this two-hour FRONTLINE special will be a unique primer for voters on the eve of the election — and a guide to what Americans can expect from the president who will be sworn in on January 20, 2021 to lead a country in crisis.

Through revealing interviews with those who know Trump and Biden best, The Choice 2020 will offer a deeply reported narrative arc of both candidates' lives.

With trustworthy journalism and powerful new insights at a moment when anxious voters are being saturated with misinformation and partisanship, this clear-eyed documentary will examine each man's approach to power, the defining moments that shaped their lives, and their visions for America's future at this pivotal juncture.

PBS KIDS TALK ABOUT:
RACE AND RACISM
OCTOBER 12 at 8am and 4pm
on Channel 34.1

“PBS KIDS Talk About: Race and Racism,” premieres October 9. The half-hour program will feature authentic conversations between real children and their parents, and will include content from PBS KIDS series DANIEL TIGER’S NEIGHBORHOOD, ARTHUR and XAVIER RIDDLE AND THE SECRET MUSEUM. The show will feature kids and their parents talking about race and racial justice-related topics in an age-appropriate way, such as noticing differences in race, understanding what racism can look like, and embracing the role we all have to play in standing up for ourselves and each other -- offering viewers ideas to build on as they continue these important conversations at home.

The special will debut as part of PBS KIDS Family Night on the PBS KIDS 24/7 Channel on WNIT (Channel 34.3), and will also be available on WNIT (34.1), and streaming on pbskids.org, the PBS KIDS Video app and on PBS KIDS’ Facebook, YouTube, and Instagram.

“PBS KIDS Talk About,” previously an online-only video series, models authentic and practical parent-child conversations that reflect PBS KIDS’ core values of kindness and curiosity, and has included real families addressing topics such as feelings and emotions, relationships and family, curiosity and wonder, bravery and courage, and self-confidence and determination.

To support this new offering, PBS KIDS provides a variety of resources to help parents talk to young children about race and racism. This resource hub on PBS KIDS for Parents (pbs.org/parents) includes articles, a webinar, booklists, links to programming, and more tips and resources to help parents have meaningful conversations with young children about race, racism, and being anti-racist.
