A Message from Greg Giczi

President and GM, PBS Michiana - WNIT

Hello Friends of PBS Michiana – WNIT!

I'm feeling very upbeat these days! It's now light when I travel to and from work...it's not as cold on my nightly "dog walks"...I know people who have actually received the COVID-19 vaccine... and, in general, people are smiling more and seem to be more optimistic. I hope that you're feeling the same way.

Do you like our new PBS Michiana – WNIT logo design? It emphasizes our PBS affiliation and speaks to serving our whole Michiana region. I've been in the television broadcast industry a long time, so I will always think in terms of "call letters" like W-N-I-T. A few years ago, we only had one channel of programming but today we have three and more on the way. You will see that we identify our "primary" channel as simply PBS Michiana – WNIT. For our other programming channels, we add a number, PBS Michiana – WNIT2, PBS Kids Michiana – WNIT3. In this way, we hope to develop a system of program channel identifications that are easy to follow as we grow. If you view using an antenna, you'll find our channels of programming at 34.1, 34.2, and 34.3. For cable or satellite, our channels are usually scattered. We provide a guide in each Planner magazine to help you find them.

PBS Michiana – WNIT's March and April programming is matching stride with the fantastic January and February line-up of PBS shows. I'm still hearing lots of positive comments about All Creatures Great and Small and The Black Church (I'm still singing along). I hope you also saw the two local special programs we produced to add some local/regional history to the national The Black Church story.

Your PBS Michiana – WNIT Planner magazine is again loaded with program descriptions and recommendations, but I always like to suggest a few of my favorites...

Women in Leadership is a new local program which premieres March 4th. Every three months we will highlight a profession and three exceptional women at her beginning, mid-level, and senior levels. Thanks to member, and WNIT founder, Jerry Hammes who encouraged us to produce this series! On March 26th, the Elkhart County Symphony Orchestra shares a performance for all of Michiana. On April 5-6-7, Ken Burns' awaited Hemingway will be presented. I've been looking forward to this since I first spotted it in the PBS production "pipeline." And, on April 13th, Frontline presents "American Insurrection." That will be a very unsettling but important program to watch.

Happy spring! Thank you for being our viewer and supporter. Please let the businesses that "underwrite" our programming know you are a viewer and appreciate their support of PBS Michiana – WNIT. We couldn't do any of what we do without all of you.

Best regards,

On the Cover

Hemingway, a three-part, six-hour documentary film by Ken Burns and Lynn Novick, examines the visionary work and the turbulent life of Ernest Hemingway, one of the greatest and most influential writers America has ever produced. Interweaving his eventful biography -- a life lived at the ultimately treacherous nexus of art, fame, and celebrity -- with carefully selected excerpts from his iconic short stories, novels, and non-fiction, the series reveals the brilliant, ambitious, charismatic, and complicated man behind the myth, and the art he created.

PBS Michiana-WNIT to Air New Local Production Specials in March & April!

PBS Michiana – WNIT is focused on bringing you programming that will keep you informed, inspired and entertained. This March and April, 5 new local productions produced by PBS Michiana – WNIT will do just that. On March 4 at 7:30pm (re-air March 21 at 6pm), “Women in Leadership” will showcase the contributions of women from Michiana and how they established themselves in their chosen industry. Each episode will feature three women at various stages of their careers – one who is just beginning, another who has established her career, and a final woman who has significantly advanced her career. Their interwoven stories will showcase the triumphs and struggles that each woman has faced, as well as how technology and society has changed their industries over the years. With eight episodes planned for the next two years, “Women in Leadership” will allow viewers to experience the contributions of local women in a variety of fields such as entrepreneurship, agriculture, technology, and more.

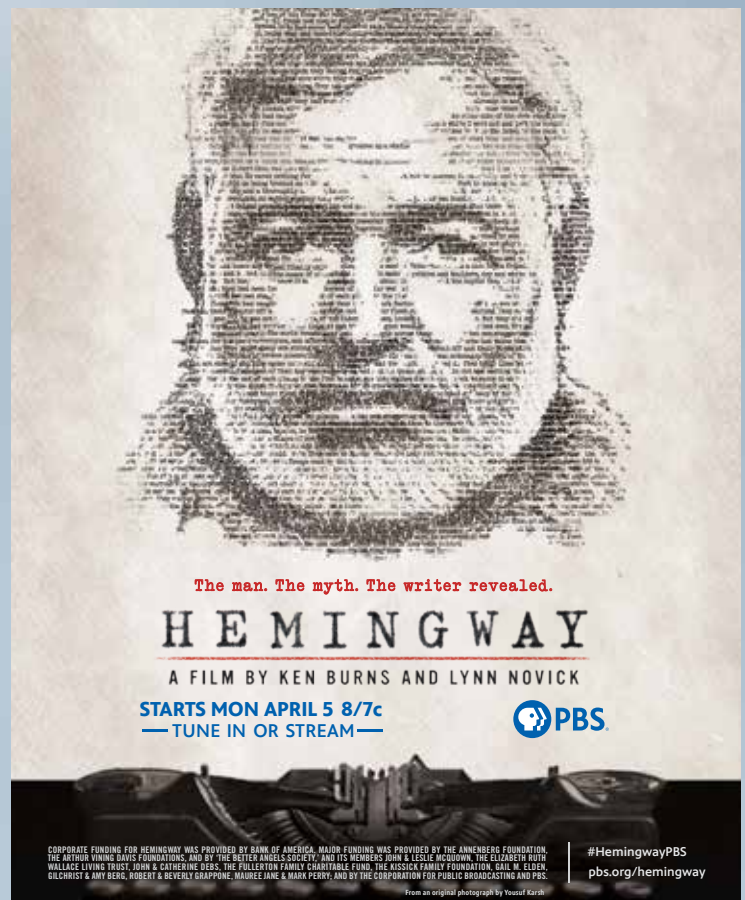

PBS Michiana – WNIT will continue programming in March & April with 4 other local programs. “Indiana: State of Education” (March 10 at 7:30pm) will join state leaders as they discuss Indiana’s talent pipeline, focusing on the future of learning, the future of work and the future of Indiana. The conversation will feature Indiana Commissioner for Higher Education Teresa Lubbers, Indiana Department of Workforce Development Commissioner Fred Payne and Indiana Secretary of Education Dr. Katie Jenner. The final two programs, “COVID-19: Where Do We Go From Here?” (Thursday, March 25 at 7:30pm) & “COVID-19: Mental Health & Wellness (April 28 at 7:30pm), will take a look at the pandemic from March 2020 through its current state to date.

Hemingway Documentary to Premiere in April

Ernest Hemingway, the iconic literary figure considered one of the greatest American writers and among the first to live and work at the treacherous nexus of art and celebrity, is the subject of an upcoming three-part, six-hour documentary series directed by award-winning filmmakers Ken Burns and Lynn Novick (THE VIETNAM WAR, PROHIBITION, THE WAR) coming to PBS Michiana – WNIT April 5-7, 2021 at 8:00 – 10:00 p.m.

The documentary paints an intimate picture of Hemingway the writer — who captured on paper the complexities of the human condition in spare and profound prose, and whose work remains deeply influential around the world — while also penetrating the myth of Hemingway the man’s man to reveal a deeply troubled and ultimately tragic figure. The film also explores Hemingway’s limitations and biases as an artist and a man of his time.

Directors' Circle

The WNIT Directors' Circle represents a very dedicated and select group of individuals who, by their commitment, contribute to the total annual support which is the foundation of WNIT's operating budget. These essential annual contributions make possible the great programs that everyone in Michiana enjoys.
