Hello to my favorite viewer...you!

Thank you for your support and enthusiasm for our programming.

I recently learned that some of my fellow public TV general managers use Artificial Intelligence ("AI") to write letters to their viewers. Not me. You can tell because AI would probably use better grammar!

While I’m still not thrilled about the end of “good weather,” I do enjoy all the holidays coming up in the next two months, starting with Halloween. So, “Happy Everything” to everyone! PBS Michiana-WNIT has some wonderful programs from PBS plus local originals to compliment the spirit of your celebrations. Your best source of program information is inside the pages of this Planner magazine. But, you know I can’t resist giving a little extra promotion to a few programs that have especially caught my eye.

On November 2nd, at 8pm, we are pleased to present a production from the South Bend Symphony, Dia de Los Muertos. This is a really, really, terrific local cultural and musical celebration of the Day of the Dead ancient tradition. Both November 9th and 10th we will feature Veteran-themed programs. If you missed previous showings, Pokagon Band of Potawatomi – A Song for Everything will be presented, again on November 13th at 9pm. And the new Groundbreakers series starts on Tuesday, November 21st at 8pm.

We could use a few more good supporters for PBS Michiana-WNIT, so we have scheduled a membership drive from Friday, November 24th through Sunday December 3rd. Ask some of your friends who certainly watch PBS Michiana to also support us financially.

Of course, we will have holiday programming throughout the month of December. We’re especially looking forward to a new production from Goshen College. Also look for a PBS Michiana-WNIT original, Vibrant Light: Stained Glass of the Basilica of Notre Dame. That will return on Friday, December 25th at 9pm. Beginning Sunday, December 10th at 9pm rewatch Season 3 of All Creatures Great and Small and get excited for a brand new season early next year. Every Thursday we will have Agatha Christie mystery episodes at 8pm and 9pm, and here comes the answer to the question I am frequently asked when I am out and about...yes, Call the Midwife will again have a Christmas episode on December 25th at 8pm, and repeated at 9:30pm.

Everything I say now about programming will be anticlimactic after the All Creatures Great and Small and Call the Midwife announcements.

Happy Holidays everyone in whichever tradition you celebrate. Peace and blessings to all. Thank you to all of you who support PBS Michiana-WNIT to make all this programming available to all.

Happy Holidays,

Greg Giczi

Drama, Music & Art

EVERYTHING YOU LOVE ABOUT PBS COMING IN THE WINTER MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN!

WNIT’s Winter Membership Campaign starts on Friday, November 24th and runs through Sunday, December 3rd.

Because public television is continually challenged by rising programming costs, and while the commercial stations receive money from cable and satellite providers, PBS stations do not. And did you know it takes about $10,000 a day to run WNIT! That’s why WNIT needs your financial support. It takes all of us to do our part and keep this programming on the air. While these drives represent around 2% of our annual broadcast hours, they do provide WNIT with the majority of revenue required to purchase and produce the regular and local programming enjoyed by everyone throughout northern Indiana and southwestern Michigan. There are new programs from Barbra Streisand, Celtic Woman, and Neil Diamond. We’ll also get a tour of Portofino as Season 2 ofHotel Portofino wraps up. Remember to share with family and friends the importance of donating to PBS Michiana – WNIT.

The Baron Mondo von Doren (Mike Ensley) is a minor demon assigned to inflict misery upon mankind by way of bad movies. With his sidekicks—the masked wrestler El Sapo de Tempesto (Chip Chism) and pet werewolf Mittens (Lemmie Crews)—the Baron introduces old horror and sci-fi films in a humorous manner with very little respect and a healthy dose of intriguing film history, which includes a visit with the Curator (Julio Diaz), who oversees the real-life collection of props and memorabilia from the Merrill Movie Museum.

End of Year Tax Planning & Donations

Each and every day you turn to WNIT for news and information you trust. With help from caring viewer-donors like you, WNIT can maintain our role as the most trustworthy source for news, the go-to station for the arts and entertainment, and the only source of curriculum-based educational children's programming. It is our mission and we stay true to that mission at all times.

As we close out 2023, we ask for your help to maintain that mission by making an additional investment in the future of WNIT. As a community-owned station, WNIT is an expression of your interests, your curiosity, and your support. Visit wnit.org/give to make your tax-deductible cash contribution before December 31st. You can also make gifts of vehicles or appreciated stock. Tax receipts for all donations in 2023 will be mailed in January, 2024.

Qualified individuals can also make a charitable gift from an IRA through December 31st. This provision allows taxpayers who are age 70 1/2 or older to give up to $100,000 from their IRA to qualifying charities without having to pay income tax on the withdrawn amount. Individuals interested in this type of contribution should consult their tax or financial advisors for more information.

At this special time of year, all of us at WNIT wish you and your family a safe and joyous holiday season and a very happy new year. We look forward to serving you in 2024 and remain dedicated to bringing you the best that public television has to offer now and into the future.

In 2024, PBS Michiana - WNIT will celebrate 50 years.

Thank you to viewers like you who have helped make us golden!
Remembering Betty

Betty Laramore of Plymouth, age 93, died on September 29, 2022. Betty was a passionate advocate for PBS Michiana-WNIT in Marshall County. She spent over 20 years volunteering for the station, primarily for the auction, and served ten years as a board member. She was also a founding director of the Marshall County Community Foundation where she encouraged Planned Giving. PBS Michiana-WNIT thanks Betty for her legacy gift which allows this organization to keep moving forward, even without her at our side.
