A Message from Greg Giczi

President and GM, PBS Michiana - WNIT

Hello, My Favorite PBS Michiana-WNIT Viewer!

Yes! I am referring to you. Thank you for caring enough about the service PBS Michiana-WNIT provides this community that you are not only an avid viewer, but a financial investor. When I write this letter for our Planner magazine, I am focused on one person, you.

Oh, the seasons are changing, footballs are in the air! Some of our viewers will watch a little less PBS during the fall and others a lot more as they seek an intelligent refuge from the proliferation of sports on television. I'm happy that we can provide a great alternative.

Besides football season, it is also election season. PBS Michiana-WNIT will be a great source of information to assist you making election decisions, but so much of that schedule of programming remains "fluid." If the September 10th "ABC News" debate occurs, we will carry it. Flowing into October, Frontline will have candidate profiles and a behind-the-scenes documentary about President Joe Biden's decision to withdraw from the race. We'll also carry the Indiana gubernatorial debate in October. By the way, we are also a refuge from political commercials; we do not carry them.

What do Ridley, Moonflower Murders, Van Der Valk and Sisi: Austrian Express have in common? These dramas feature mystery, murder and history and premiere on Sunday, September 15th. On Thursday, September 26th, the fall installment of WNIT's quarterly series Crossroads will air at 7:30pm.

October is packed with captivating programming you won't want to miss! Tune in every Friday at 8PM for Voces American Historia, a series that delves into the rich and diverse stories of Latinx communities. On Thursday, October 10, we'll re-air the powerful local documentary: Pokagon Band of Potawatomi: A Song for Everything at 8PM, followed by Fighting Indians at 9PM, which explores the resilience and heritage of Native American tribes. On Thursday, October 17 at 8PM, don't miss the local Indiana documentary The Girl with the Yellow Scarf, offering a heartfelt look at a Martinsville, Indiana 1968 civil rights case.

We continue celebrating our 50th year of broadcasting and building toward our next 50. I hope you might consider a special gift for this milestone. We are raising additional funds for 1) equipment replacement, 2) expansion of our educational outreach services, 3) creation of additional local programming, and 4) general operations. For larger gifts, we have naming opportunities. Please reach out.

Please enjoy all the great programming that will be coming your way on all five of the PBS Michiana-WNIT over-the-air channels, and remember, you can livestream 34.1 with the PBS app for free. They are there for you and because of you. Thank you.

Sincerely,

On the Cover

Filmed in one of the most dynamic locations on the African continent, Big Cats 24/7 captures the big cats' battle to survive through dramatic changes within their families and their home. An elite camera team including wildlife cinematographers Gordon Buchanan, Vianet Djenguet and Anna Dimitriadis, led by Brad Bestelink and his local camera team, documents the dramatic lives of individual lions, cheetahs and leopards for six months over two extreme seasons. This raw and unfiltered observational wildlife series shows their fight to survive in an increasingly challenging world. From unprecedented wildfire to floods and extreme drought, the African cats and the Big Cats 24/7 camera crew are tested to their limits.

Big Cats 24/7, a new-six part series, will premiere Wednesdays, September 18-October 16, 2024 at 8:00 p.m. ET

We really enjoy COBRA, All Creatures Great and Small, and the wonderful array of dramatic programming. We also love NOVA, Nature, POV, Great American Recipe, Milk Street, etc.! The best addition was the programming from other countries. What a treat! There isn't enough space to list all the shows that we love to watch. Thank you for all the hard work you do to bring them to our home.

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

WNIT's Membership Campaign begins Saturday, August 31st and runs through Sunday, September 8th. Public television is continually challenged by rising programming costs, and while the commercial stations receive money from cable and satellite providers, PBS stations do not.

Instead, WNIT depends on viewer donations, grants, and corporate sponsorships to fund operations. This is why your support is crucial to the future of PBS Michiana. THANK YOU!!

From the Control Room to Retirement: Special Thanks to Our Beloved PBS Engineer Mike Kauffman

Mike joined WNIT as Engineering Supervisor in August 1997 after spending 24 years as an engineer and engineering supervisor at WSBT Radio and Television, along with running his own two-way radio installation and repair business and other consulting work. Mike's many accomplishments at WNIT include: the design and construction of WNIT's digital transmitter plant in 2003 and our conversion to digital broadcasting; installation of the diesel backup generator for our transmitter site in 2004; recovering from our devastating office fire in 2009; designing and building the technical plant in our new South Bend location in 2009-10 and seamlessly moving our operation without loss of air time; expanding our transmitter to increase our signal strength in 2011; overseeing construction of a new TV transmitter in 2019; rebuilding our studio infrastructure in 2019 to replace our video server and add the PBS Kid's Channel on 34.3; and many others over 27 years. Mike has come up with many imaginative, out-of-the-box fixes over the years to keep us on the air while under the budget constraints of public broadcasting.

Mike cut back to part-time the first of this year, but is still a part of the WNIT Engineering team and continues to maintain our transmitter plant and help out with other projects as needed.
