A MESSAGE FROM GREG GICZI President and GM, WNIT Public Television

Happy New Year, WNIT Supporters!

Thank you for all you have done to support WNIT this past year. May you and yours receive many blessings this coming year.

Your Michiana PBS station plans to do its part to enrich your life with our blend of educational, cultural, and civically-engaged programming. We hope you will find our programs not only interesting to watch, but that they motivate you to take action in your little corner of Michiana to make it just a little bit better.

As you can guess from the cover of the WNIT Planner, the second season of Victoria is launching. This season will be set in the 1840s, a decade of revolution, famine and unrest – and for Victoria, much childbearing. WNIT will continue our encore of Victoria's first season on Sunday evenings right up to the premiere of the new episodes on Sunday, January 14 at 9pm.

I hope you've noticed that WNIT produces a lot of local programming. We're still receiving compliments on last month's Our Town documentaries about Benton Harbor and St. Joseph, Michigan. WNIT produced two separate one-hour programs to highlight the twin cities on the lake. All together, 52 short stories of interest were created.

In January, we return with our Legends of Michiana series and the story of Elkhart entrepreneur, Satish Shah. Guess who made AquaNet hair spray possible? Watch our premiere broadcast on Thursday, January 25 at 8pm or an encore the following Monday at 10pm.

I have a resolution that I hope you will add to your list. In 2018, please become a sustainer member of WNIT. That means instead of writing a larger check once a year, you agree to smaller amounts paid monthly on your credit card. Doing it this way really helps our cash flow. Consider giving at least $5 per month, and at that level, you will also receive our WNIT Passport member benefit giving you on-line access to the vault of PBS programming.

Your support of WNIT – PBS Michiana is greatly appreciated! Please enjoy these next two months of terrific programs. And, don't forget to check out our WNIT-2 channel, which you can view at 34.2 with an antenna or Comcast channel 34.1.

Best wishes,

Greg Giczi
President & General Manager

PRODUCTION NEWS

Masterpiece: Victoria Returns to WNIT Public Television

Jenna Coleman returns for a new season as the young queen who wants it all — romance, power, an heir, and personal freedom — on Victoria, Season 2, airing in seven episodes that premiere January 14 on MASTERPIECE.

More than 16.2 million viewers tuned in for Victoria's premiere season, making it the highest-rated drama on PBS in 20 years — second only to Downton Abbey.

Season 2 finds Victoria adapting to motherhood after the birth of her first child, a daughter (to the disappointment of many). Meanwhile, the disaster of the Anglo-Afghan War unfolds abroad, and the catastrophic Irish potato famine begins to wreak havoc. In other foreign affairs, a royal state visit to France is in the offing. Joining the cast in the new season is legendary actress Dame Diana Rigg, who plays the Duchess of Buccleuch, the court's new Mistress of the Robes — a fount of old-fashioned good sense for the queen. Tom Hughes stars as the queen's smoldering consort, Prince Albert. Also returning from last season are Nell Hudson as Nancy Skerrett, newly promoted to the queen's chief dresser, whose secrets are yet to be revealed, and Ferdinand Kingsley as Charles Francatelli, the royal chef whose love for Nancy was spurned at the end of Season 1.

Victoria's first season, focusing on the teenage queen's audacious upstaging of her handlers to chart her own path, delighted TV critics. The Hollywood Reporter called Victoria "thoroughly enjoyable and addictive." "Royally entertaining," proclaimed The San Francisco Chronicle, and "a sparkling gem," said The New York Post. "Victoria is a victory," declared The Tampa Bay Times. And, of course, the costumes and settings enchanted all: "A lavish production with impeccable period details," penned Newsday.

Masterpiece: Victoria, Season 2 premieres Sunday, January 14 at 9pm on WNIT Public Television Ch. 34.1.

Legends of Michiana: Satish Shah

Moving to the US from India to attend college, Satish Shah obtained a degree in chemical engineering. He went on to help formulate AquaNet hairspray, then turned his sights to starting his own business. In 1967, in a garage in Elkhart, Indiana, he and a business partner started Accra Pac and spent the next 45 years in Elkhart growing his business and supporting a community.

He and his wife Debra were an integral part of developing the River Walk in Downtown Elkhart and have ceaselessly supported the United Way, Boys & Girls Club, Junior Achievement, and Indiana University in Elkhart. He is passionate about fostering minority-owned businesses and encouraging the next generation of community leaders.

These accomplishments and his lasting impact on our community make Satish Shah the next Legend of Michiana.

WNIT is proud to present its newest installment of the Legends of Michiana series, featuring Satish Shah, on Thursday, January 25 at 8pm and Monday, January 29 at 10pm on 34.1.

Politically Speaking and Experience Michiana to Switch Nights

Beginning January 4, two of WNIT's local programs, Politically Speaking and Experience Michiana, will switch nights they are aired.

Politically Speaking, which began its 20th season on October 1, will no longer air on Thursdays at 7pm. Instead, Politically Speaking will move to the 7pm spot on Friday evenings. Experience Michiana will no longer air on Fridays at 7pm, but will instead move a day earlier to Thursday nights at 7pm.

"WNIT is always looking for ways to make our local programming more relevant and useful for our viewers. On Fridays, we recognized that by moving Politically Speaking we create a news and public affairs block of programming from 5:30pm to 9pm. And, by moving Experience Michiana to Thursday evenings, we give viewers an extra day to plan for any of the weekend events that may be promoted on that week's program. We hope this move will be a win-win for viewers," says WNIT President & General Manager, Greg Giczi.

IN MEMORIAM

Thomas J. Borger March 22, 1948 - November 7, 2017

WNIT Public Television mourns the loss of Thomas J. Borger. Tom was a great friend of WNIT, as well as a longtime Directors' Circle supporter. He loved spending time with his family and friends and could be seen enjoying three of his greatest hobbies – golf and Notre Dame football and basketball. Tom will be remembered as someone who always sought to make his community better. It is because of him and his wife, Liz, that residents of Elkhart will forever be able to enjoy the gift of G. David Gundlach.

WNIT expresses our condolences to Liz, the family and friends of Thomas J. Borger. We are forever grateful he was a part of the WNIT Public Television family.

DIRECTORS' CIRCLE

The WNIT Directors' Circle represents a very dedicated and select group of individuals who, by their commitment, contribute to the total annual support which is the foundation of WNIT's operating budget. These essential annual contributions make possible the great programs that everyone in Michiana enjoys.
